American Numismatic Society -

Dear Sir

There is a very good Collection of antique & other coins, many of them gold - about 12,000 in all - which the owner, a private collector will be glad to sell.

I have photographs & full details of the coins which are in Europe at present.

The collection is said
by experts to be very suitable for a museum or university for educational purposes.

Will you let me hear from you, if you can put me in touch with any institute which would be likely to be interested in the purchase.
The collection is probably too large for any individual to consider buying it.
Thanking you for your courtesy
Yours very truly -

Dear Madam:

In reply to your letter of March 15th, I regret that I am unable to refer you to any Institution likely to be in a position to acquire the collection which you describe. May I say further that I doubt if you could find anyone who would make an offer on such a collection from the photographs. Condition plays such a large part in the evaluation of coins that few collectors will make an offer without first seeing them.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
